It's A Christmas Party With Gifts For Members For Local Garden Club

Monday evening at 7:45 will be the Christmas party of the local Garden club at Alexander hall, and Santa Claus says that every member will have a present. This is how—every member should bring to the meeting some gift, not exceeding ten cents in cost, and these gifts taken by Santa will be distributed to each one securely wrapped. It's a scream to open your Christmas package and learn its contents—perhaps just the very thing you wanted. There will also be a guessing contest and members are urged to bring small branches of evergreen of various kinds for identification. With nearly a hundred members, that party will be some party. President D. E. Bodley will preside and the usual business will come before the meeting, while Miss Anne Mattoon will have charge of the program. There will be plenty to interest every member for the whole evening. The meeting of the Garden club for January will be omitted, but the meeting scheduled for February will be the annual dinner, of which announcement will be made in due time.

this week, proceeds helping to finance the never-ending fight against tuberculosis in this country.

Heading the campaign in nearby towns are Mrs. Raymond L. Dunnell of Bernardston, Mrs. Harold W. Maddern of Gill, and Mrs. Janet B. Shepardson, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Francis of Warwick.

The light of knowledge spread by tuberculosis education guided Steven Dohanos, the artist of this year's Christmas seal, back to health, his work and a normal, happy life. This poignant, personal experience forms the background of the 1941 seal. Out of this experience Mr. Dohanos conceived the lighthouse as the symbol of our work; spreading light, leading the way to safety.

Wedded In New York

A news dispatch from New York City states that Miss Beverly Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Potts of this town and Robert Lewis Fuller, also of this town, were married Sunday, at the Little Church Around the Corner in that city by the Rev. Dr. Randolph Ray. Both are well known among the young people of Northfield.

Masonic Installation

On Friday evening of next week the officers of Harmony Lodge of Masons will be installed at a special meeting of the lodge at their hall on Parker avenue by Rt. Wor. Frank H. Reed and suite. After the ceremonies a banquet will be served members and visiting brethren.

Schools To Sponsor Hot Lunch Program

Parents of Northfield are being sent a questionnaire this week which is to be used by the school department to determine needs of a hot lunch program.

Federal, state and local health authorities are agreed that a hot lunch is a very important part of the educational process. The school lunch is to supplement that which the pupil brings from home.

Hot soup will be served at first and if there is a demand for hot cocoa or milk and a simple dessert these may be added later.

Parents and interested citizens have been asked to give suggestions toward the planning of the program. It is also planned to use government surplus commodities.

Some of the present needs are: Electric plate, kettles, silverware, small dishes. Any agency that wishes to contribute toward this program please notify any member of the school committee or the superintendent of schools.

Town Will Owe State To Balance Accounts

In a final balancing of accounts with the state it has been determined that the town of Northfield will be one of the five towns in the county which will owe the state a balance to square up while all other towns will receive a payment. The towns and the amounts receivable are Buckland, $17; Charlemont, $193; Shelburne $204; Sunderland, $366; and Northfield, $144. Provision will have to be made by the selectmen to make payment. Towns in our immediate vicinity to receive an amount from the state, include Bernardston, $1572; Erving, $15,742; Gill, $603; Greenfield, $10,063; Montague, $39,966; and Warwick, $1211.

District Nurse Reports Of October Work

An interesting report has been rendered by our local nurse, Miss Purrington and in order that our citizens may consider it, the Press accords it space in its columns. The report is for October:

Cases carried over, 1; New cases, 7; Maternity cases, 1; Deliveries, 1; Health supervision, 16; Total visits, 48; Children treated at dental clinic, 10; Total fees collected amounted to $19.75.

The usual routine work has been done in the schools. Health talks were given in each room. All children in the schools were tested with the audiometer. Sixteen children were found to have defective hearing. These have all been examined by our school physician, Dr. Wright, who found all except three can be corrected by treatment. Sixty children were found to have defective eye-sight. Many of these have already been examined by an oculist and have been fitted to glasses. Eight children in the first grade were found to have callous or beginning corns. This shows we should pay more attention to fitting our children to proper shoes. Twenty-three children from grades 2 thru 7 showed signs of falling arches or were already flat-footed.

Thirty-four children were found to be decidedly underweight, and 12 children overweight. This fall several children have been taken home because of illness. During October ten children were taken home. Children not feeling well in the morning with an elevation in temperature, or any symptoms of disease should not be sent to school.

Regular office hours are held from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m. each school day. One day is spent in school work each week, a total of 47 1/2 hours being spent in school work this month. Thirty-two children were seen during office hours in October. Ten first-aid treatments were given and 22 home visits were made.

Ten parents visited at the time of the health examinations. We appreciate the parents' interest and hope more will find time to visit school at this time. This makes our health program more valuable to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mann of the South Mountain road entertained a party of eleven on the holiday.

Mrs. Frank Streeter of the upper Farms has closed her home to go to Danvers for possible future residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parker entertained at their home on the recent holiday, her sisters, Ruth and Frances Towne, Mrs. Ella Paine and C. A. Parker.

Mrs. Vincent Sullivan and children of Bolton are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Leach of Northfield Farms.

China For China Party At The Fitt Home Saturday Afternoon

It is fitting and proper that we should turn from our celebration of Thanksgiving for all our blessings and prosperity, to relief and aid for the most patient and long-suffering nation we know. Students and faculty of both the Northfield schools are joining with members of our three churches and friends from this vicinity in an attempt to make our sale for China relief an outstanding success.

From two to five o'clock on Saturday afternoon of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Fitt there will be on sale all kinds of articles appropriate for Christmas gifts; and the prices, from five cents to a dollar.

Refreshments will be served free of charge to any friend donating an article for the sale, buying something, or contributing food.

Miss VaVoast of the Seminary is providing Chinese tea, which she will serve with the help of students. A committee of friends are making Chinese wafers according to Mrs. Lin Yutang's recipe. Besides all kinds of china and glassware, there will be an odds-and-ends table with as much variety as an old-fashioned grab bag. Many handsome vases have been given to this sale already, and Mrs. Ross Spencer is filling some of these with bulbs, ivy, and slips from plants. A bushel of picturesque frost-tipped cones from the Ridge home of Mrs. LaBelle have been tinted in all colors and are suitable for corsages and Christmas door decorations. Contributed plants from florists will also be sold.

Chinese Christmas cards, rare in design and combinations of color, will be on sale through the courtesy of the Bookstore, as well as dainty guest towels from the schools in China with which Mrs. Esther Moody Loos has been associated. There will also be a book table.

For the children, there will be a table of china animals and ornaments, as well as delicious whole-some home-made candy. All the sales-ladies, including the little girls running the children's table will be in costume. Come and spend a delightful afternoon at the "China for China" party.

Fortnightly Meetings

Last week Friday afternoon Mrs. George Davis of Deerfield, State Federation chairman of literature, spoke on "Reading for Re-creation" before members of the Fortnightly at Alexander hall. Miss Ruth Field furnished the musical part of the program with songs. Miss Anne Mattoon, Mrs. Orville Mirtz and Mrs. Frank H. Montague were tea hostesses.

The next meeting will be Friday Dec. 5 at 3 o'clock in Alexander hall when members will hear William Averitt of Deerfield academy speak on "Foreign Affairs." Tea hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. Ross L. Spencer, Mrs. F. Wilton Dean and Mrs. Marshall Lanphear.

With The Forum

On Sunday evening the Young People's Forum will meet at 8:15 in the Congregational church Endeavor room to discuss programs for the future and to review the past meetings. This meeting is open to all young people and others interested in the Forum as there are no "members" in the true sense of the term. All young people in the community are potential members. This is not an election meeting as all new officers have been appointed. Mr. Dahl and the present officers urge you to come.

A Religious Pageant

Preparations are in progress for giving a religious pageant at the Unitarian church on the evening of Sunday, Dec. 21, by the members of the church and Sunday school. The pageant will cover the birth, childhood and young manhood of Jesus, opening with the vision of Isaiah and the annunciation. Four committees which have been named will work out the details of the music, costumes, lighting and directing.

Hermon Store Change

The Students' Store in Camp Hall on Mount Hermon campus, is now owned by Pauline J. Carmean and Frank R. Foster and will be conducted under the firm name of Carmean & Foster. The store will continue to carry the usual large stock of merchandise necessary for the needs of a large body of students at Hermon.

Town Takes Tax Titles And Sells Property

Following the legal requirements there was advertised the taking and sale of certain properties in the town, by the tax collector and treasurer, Charles F. Slatte on Nov. 1 at the town hall. There were five properties scheduled for a tax taking sale, for non-payment of taxes. Of these two were taken by the town and three were withdrawn because of payment of arrears before the sale. Of the four parcels of land scheduled for sale by the treasurer, one was purchased by Arthur and Ruth Bolton, while the town assumed the ownership of the other three.

Thanksgiving Day Is Observed At Hermon

The annual Thanksgiving Day home-coming for alumni and students at Mount Hermon was observed with the return of 75 former students from 25 colleges in New England and even from Wake Forest in North Carolina. A day of athletic contests against the alumni, a turkey dinner, and a worship service filled the day with unusual events. No classes were held.

Dr. Paul Braisted, formerly head of the Bible department here and now secretary of the Hazen Foundation, spoke at the worship service at the chapel with Dr. Porter presiding. In his message he said that the United States should be careful not to utter thanks to God as the Pharisee of old. Though we should be grateful for all we have and are, we should realize humbly our failures and ask forgiveness for our shortcomings.

At the dinner the seniors sang the famous turkey song as the 60 waiters lined up with their turkey on trays. Among the college alumni who spoke were T. Zaunsmill of Middlebury, Paul Detman of Yale, Russ Burgess of Dartmouth and Charles Hall of Princeton. The traditional one-tined fork was presented, with a speech, by president Robert Kalland of the class of 1942 and received by Robert Jones of '43.

The feature of the triple athletic contests was the winning of the cross-country race by the alumni 17 to 38. Arthur Adams of Wake Forest did the 2.7 miles in 13.48, three seconds of the record. Wheeler of Rutgers was second, closely followed by Holmes of Wesleyan. Fourth was Ayer of Cornell with Bramhall of Hermon 5th.

The alumni won the soccer game 2-1 and lost the basketball game to the seniors. The faculty won the volleyball match against the seniors.

W.C.T.U. Fall Rally

The Franklin County Women's Christian Temperance Union assembled in Alexander hall at 11 on Wednesday morning with the county president, Mrs. E. M. Morgan, presiding. Mrs. L. R. Smith led the devotions and the welcome was extended by our local president, Mrs. Philip Porter. The county secretary's report was read by Mrs. Martin Vorce in the absence of the secretary. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Leon Nelson of Bernardston. Other items of business were disposed of and reports on the highlights of the state convention were given by Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Morgan. A box luncheon was served at noon with coffee being served by the local WCTU.

There was a real treat in the "Echoes of Samoa" by Mrs. Morgan's granddaughter who was the granddaughter of a chief of Samoa. Mrs. Norman Danforth and her daughter Irene, told us of the customs of Samoa and Irene sang two action songs which were most interesting. Rev. Edward C. Dahl led the devotions. Three reels of motion pictures, "The Beneficent Reprobate," were shown. The sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the grammar school were present and sang six songs. There were over 100 present. We wish to thank Mr. Carr for running the pictures; also the teachers for putting on such an interesting program.

Speaks At Springfield

President William E. Park of the Northfield schools will speak at a meeting of the Springfield Ministers' Association at the Y. M. C. A. in Springfield on Monday at 10:30 in the morning. President Park's talk will be on Religion and Education. Canon Raymond H. Kendrick of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts is chairman of the program committee.

Writing in the Brattleboro Reformer and Phoenix, the writer "Rustic" on the front page says a finely and deserved word of appreciation of the suppers served at the Vernon Union church by the Ladies' Circle and of which church Rev. Ellis E. Jones is pastor. The title of the article is "Best Church Suppers" and is of interest to many here, because of their patronage. The article is as follows:

"When the Rustic gave the palm for church suppers to the Methodists we wondered whether we had ever eaten at the table of the Vernon ladies. We regard the Methodist suppers as top rank—they may even be the best of the denominations, as the Rustic proclaims—but the fare served at Vernon suggests that a mixture of denominations may be the formula for the best viands.

In case of accident or other danger all you have to do, if you don't have the number of the nearest police or fire station, is get the Operator and say "Emergency Police" ... or "Emergency Fire" ... and give her your telephone number and your street address... She has available the numbers of fire stations, police stations, doctors, hospitals. She calls the one nearest your home — then "stands by" ready to rush through any additional call that you may make.

We suggest that the simple procedure be explained to every member of your family — especially the importance of giving the Operator your telephone number and address — the only means she has of directing help to your home.

Good Cheer

With the season of thanksgiving for particular blessings, behind us, we may now look forward to the Christmas season, which will be upon us. It will be a time for rejoicing and in the interval of its coming, we will do well to cultivate the "feeling of good will to all men." After all we live in a world of brotherhood.

Prop Us Up

I was very much amused the other day to read of a colored preacher, who in the midst of his pessimism, prayed that the good Lord "may prop us up in all our leaning places." Now, that was good doctrine, even if not expressed as we would do so, but it was just as sensible and sound. In the time of sorrow and suffering, of worry and disappointment, in the trials and anxieties of the world situation, well may we supplicate that we be propped up in all our leaning places.

A Good Thought

"No one can be perfectly free till all are free; no one can be perfectly moral till all are moral; no one can be perfectly happy till all are happy."

—Herbert Spencer

December

The year is fading. One by one the months have slipped along; Some in the arms of sorrow, Some on the wings of song, December meets us on the trail, Fragile and lean and cold; His body trembles in the wind: The year is growing old . . . But look! His eyes are warm and bright, His vision clear and far! His smile, a radiance of joy— His fingers hold a star! . . . He breathes the Christmas spirit, And his eyes reflect the light From a hundred thousand candles In the sky—On Christmas night. —Ione Rehm Hertweck

Know Massachusetts
by State Planning Board

In Massachusetts 89.4 per cent of the people live in towns having more than 2500 residents . . . The boundaries of the state have remained unchanged since 1855. In that year a small area was ceded to New York; in 1820 Maine previously a part of Massachusetts was admitted to the Union as a separate state . . . The Watertown Arsenal has been making guns for 125 years . . . Barnstable county had the biggest percentage increase in population between 1930 and 1940 of any county in Massachusetts. Its total gain was 15.4 per cent, most of which occurred in the smaller towns . . . The first pier of the Charles River bridge from Boston to Charlestown was laid June 14, 1785, and on June 17, 1786, the bridge was opened for public travel with a great parade . . . Seating capacities of prominent assembly halls in Boston are as follows: Boston Madison Square Garden 20,000; Boston Arena, 10,000; Mechanics Building 5400; Boston Opera House 3244; Symphony Hall 2931; Tremont Temple 2500; Old South Meeting House 1200; Faneuil Hall 1000 . . . The first photograph of the moon was taken Dec. 18, 1849 at Harvard college, the camera being fitted with a 15-inch object glass . . . The first state to advocate probation in case of juvenile delinquency was Massachusetts. In 1869 a statutory law was passed requiring the Governor to appoint a visiting agent to work, not for the child's punishment, but for his salvation and redemption . . . The reconstruction of Ocean Bluff, Marshfield, is attracting nation-wide attention because of the advanced planning methods being applied there.

I Miss You

I miss you in the morning, dear, When all the world is new; I know the day can bring no joy Because it brings not of you. I miss the well-loved voice of you, Your tender smile for me, The charm of you, the joy of your Unfailing sympathy.

The world is full of folks, it's true But there was only one of you.

I miss you at the noontide, dear; The crowded city street Seems but desert now, I walk In solitude complete.

I miss your hand beside my own, The light touch of your hand, The quick gleam in the eyes of you So sure to understand.

The world is full of folks, it's true But there was only one of you.

I miss you in the evening dear, When daylight fades away; I miss the sheltering arms of you To rest me from the day, I try to think I see you yet There where the firelight gleams Wearily at last, I sleep, and still I miss you in my dreams.

The world is full of folks, it's true But there was only one of you.

—B. Y. Williams
